DAY 1 SUNDAY, 02 NOVEMBER 2025

- Meet your tour guide and group members Bus pick up from the main pre-stay hotels
- Nili and David Jerusalem Bird Observatory In 1993, two young birdwatchers discovered a banded migrant bird from Sweden and so started the Nili and David Jerusalem Bird Observatory, a center of education, science, and community located next to the Knesset. Over 50,000 visitors, from around the world and all sectors of society, flock to visit the JBO. You'll be joining them to experience an unforgettable up-close bird banding activity and learn about Israel's vital importance to global bird migration.
- A visit to the beautiful Gazelle Valley Located in the heart of Jerusalem, in the shadow of the infamous Holyland apartment block, the Gazelle Valley was saved by SPNI and turned into a world-class urban wildlife site. It's a very special type of park, and a haven for a herd of 180 endangered Israeli mountain gazelle. Amir Balaban, our Director of Urban Nature, will tell you the story of how the park came to be and how it's being used as a model for urban sustainability in Israel and around the world.
- Picnic lunch in the park
- Tour of Jerusalem Hills to see Wildfire Recovery Over 6000 acres of the Jerusalem forest was torched by wildfires in August. With an SPNI professional, you will hike in places affected by the fire first hand to witness the recovery and see how resilient nature is. You'll learn about Israel's misguided afforestation policy and what SPNI is doing about it.
